IMPACTFUL SUMMARY

I'm excited to share my latest portfolio project, Exoplanet Hunter AI. It's a full-stack application I built from scratch that uses a machine learning model to classify exoplanets from real NASA data. The project includes a Python/Flask backend, a RESTful API, and a dynamic web interface.

You can see the full write-up, a video demo, and all the code on GitHub:
https://github.com/MoahamedMamdouh/exoplanet-hunter